

NOTICE OF ZERO FEE CHARGED FOR APPLICATION FORM FOR ADMISSION 2020-2021

The West Bengal government on Thursday announced that students will not be charged for applying to state-run colleges and universities for admission in undergraduate courses. As per an official order, no money can be charged from students for providing application forms or prospectus for admission.

Students are request to take the print out of the application form from next Tuesday Onwards (18-August-2020) from student portal. Print out of application form service will be suspended due to technical change for zero fee charged from students for providing application forms or prospectus for admission.
